TALK OF THE TOWN

Now is the time to buy a "Maish Comfort" at Perry's—soft like down. See them and believe.

The amusement committee of the Odd Ladies will meet at the home of Mrs. Bianchi, Pearl street, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Special for Saturday: chocolate walnut, molasses and vanilla kisses, 15 cents pound; butterscotch wafers, 15 cents pound, at the Barre Candy Kitchen.

A joint installation of the officers of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and the Ladies' Auxiliary, was held last evening in the K. of C. hall. The installing officers were D. J. Sullivan and Miss Nora McMahon of Montpelier. The meeting was attended by a very large number of the two divisions. After the installation the ladies' drill team gave their drill, and dancing was then enjoyed until midnight, music being furnished by Riley's orchestra. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Public dance at M. W. of A. hall, Saturday evening, January 23, with Gilbertson's orchestra; dancing from 8 to 12. Admission for girls 50 cents, ladies free.

Don't overlook those bargain in shoes and oxfords for women on sale at C. S. Andrews' shoe store. Such opportunities for saving money are seldom offered.

A daughter, weighing 8½ pounds, was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. William L. Messenger of Norwich. William M. Stewart of this city is the infant's grandfather.

Barre labor men will be particularly interested in reading the debate on the Bloomer apprentice bill, as it appears in our legislative story on the second page of to-day's issue. The bill was killed in the House yesterday afternoon, largely on the protest of the Barre Central Labor Union.

The annual election of officers of the Montpelier Association of Congregational Ministers will be held at the meeting in the Montpelier House, Montpelier, next Tuesday, at 10:30 in the forenoon. The program will include a sermon by Rev. D. H. Strong of Williamstown, a paper on "The Sphere of the Church," by Rev. Fraser Metzger of Randolph, a book review by Rev. Robert Clark, and another by Rev. J. B. Sargent.

Judging from the attendance at the opera house last evening, there are a lot of base ball cranks in Barre. There was a good audience at the matinee and a full house at both performances in the evening. The base ball film will be run at each performance to-day and tomorrow. The other pictures will be changed to-night. This evening and Saturday matinee and night will be the last chance to see "Mlle. Carrina" and her performing bears. A special attraction at the Saturday matinee will be Miss Isabella Gail in Scottish dances. This little lady dances in full Highland costume, and her dancing is truly remarkable for a child of seven years.

After the matinee on Saturday all children will be permitted to go on the stage and get a close view of the bears.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Roller skating at the pavilion tonight. Bernia L. Cameron of Marshfield was a visitor in the city yesterday.

F. C. Smith of St. Albans was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Watch for the date of the young ladies' supper at the Universalist church. Remnants of all kinds on our center counter. New ones, at Veale & Knight's.

Hospital Benefit Supper.—Chicken pie supper, under direction Mrs. Benedict, Thursday evening, January 28, from 5:30 to 7:30, Universalist church vestry.

Dance in armory hall, Montpelier, Friday evening, January 22, with Whittier's orchestra. General admission 50c, ladies free. Special car to Barre after dance.

On Saturday, January 23, there will be ice races at North Montpelier, to include an open event, a green race and a three-minute class. The purses are $10, and the entrance fee a dollar. All are invited to come and help the sport.

A pair of men's heavy grey working pants, well made, and good for hard service, at 98c, is what A. A. Smith and Brother are offering today. Several other extraordinary bargains are contained in their ad. today on page 4. One of them is regular $1.00 dress shirts for 25 cents this week. Better read ad. now and see.

The soliciting committee for the hospital benefit supper intend to see every person in the city and town of Barre. Supplies of any and all kinds will be welcome and what is not needed at the supper can be used at the hospital. Any contribution is earnestly solicited and will be thankfully received, and may be left at the Barre central fire station.

A. P. Abbott & Son's White Plymouth Rocks, exhibited at the St. Albans poultry show this week, won all of the club ribbons. The best bird scored 95½ points, which was the highest score in the show. Their exhibit took five firsts, one second, and a third, as follows: first cock, first cockerel, first pullet, first hen, first pen, second cockerel and third pullet. They also exhibited some of their Single Comb Rhode Island Reds, and these won fourth pullet, four cockerel and second pen.

Hospital Benefit Supper.

This supper was suggested from the fact that heretofore many have expressed their disappointment at not being able to patronize something benefiting the hospital on the third terms with those who dance. Therefore, there is to be a chicken pie supper the same night as the hospital benefit ball, Thursday evening, January 28, at Universalist church vestry, from 5:30 to 7:30, price 25c per plate. Those who do not dance can patronize this supper, as well as those who do attend the ball. This supper is independent of the one to be served in connection with the ball.
